ten rolls of the new Porto Rican leaf....

known as the
LUCKE
ROLLED CIGAR
five inches
long,
full cigar weight.

JULIA CLEARY

A free drawing, quick roll of the loam-soil newgrowth Porto Rican crops bought up by J. H. Lucke & Co., before close of the Spanish war.

This tobacco is the finest kind of a genuine tropical-grown, velvety leaf, but was procured at one-sixth cost of recent inferior Havana crops.

They hold the ash, have the color and aroma, and look in one's mouth like the finest cigar—which indeed they are, in every sense except price.

Many of the recent imported cigars, being sold at fanciest prices, are not nearly so rich, so fine and so satisfactory as these goods. Any dealer will benefit in the end by placing these goods in reach of his customers.

DECLARES THAT SHE KILLED HER CHILD.

Julia Cleary Gives Herself Up and Tells of a Crime Committed Thirteen Years Ago.

SHE WANTS TO HANG FOR IT.

According to Her Story She Cut the Infant's Throat and Threw It Into the River at Chester, Ill.

Julia Cleary, a woman about 28 years old, who removed her recently from the Poorhouse yesterday morning, walked into the Central District Police Station, recently erected across from and added to the building, declaring that she was guilty of murder. She said that she had killed an infant of her own thirteen years ago, and when she was fifteen in Chester, Ill., and she wanted to hang for the crime. She also stated who was an ally of the law, and the woman who was the husband, who she was married to a red-headed woman who then got into a woman named Cleary, the mother. A long time ago, she said, she had committed any crime there it was not known.

It is a strange story, while the woman tells the police are at a loss to understand her. It may be a case of a sudden conscience or much less cause of hallucination. As far as we can ascertain, however, the woman had been in the Illinois State Hospital for two years and during all that time had never said anything which would indicate her belief in what she said of her mind. Her story was then repeated along, but he attributed that to her station in life. It was a surprise to him that she had used to murder.

"I have often spoken to the woman to cheer her up. I felt sorry for her," he said. "I never thought of us being married, but I did not know she was married. She has never given me the slightest thoughts.

Some of the main things the railroad men looked for in making a move was to get rid of the old buildings, and the committee said that these were to be replaced by a new structure.
